On July 2, 2021, Aziz Coleman commenced supervised release. During a home inspection on July 7, 2021, a urine specimen was taken from Mr. Coleman that tested positive for marijuana. Mr. Coleman admitted to smoking marijuana while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons and reported that the last time he smoked marijuana was on June 30, 2021, prior to his release from custody.

Mr. Coleman was warned against the use of illegal substances and we discussed consequences for continued illegal drug use and pro-social alternatives. The U.S. Probation Office will increase drug testing for Mr. Coleman and notify the Court of any additional non-compliance. He will be referred to substance abuse treatment, if deemed necessary. We are respectfully requesting no action be taken against Mr. Coleman.
